

EDITO

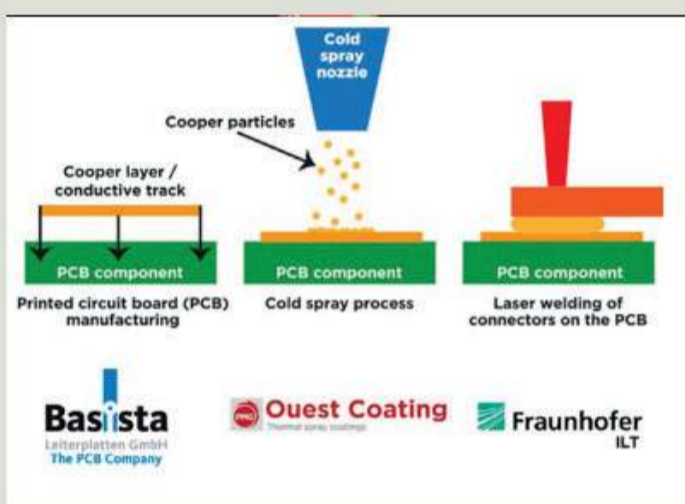

The year 2018 is reflected by the launch of a major European project with our subsidiary OUEST COATING, its researchers and its laboratory qualified in aeronautics, aerospace and energy...

Read more

CLAPE PROJECT

The CLAPE research project, launched in July 2017, aims to develop for power electronics polymer-based printed circuit boards (PCBs), less expensive than currently available solutions. This work relies on the know-how of the 3 partners. First results presented in figures 3 and 4 are very promising.

Distribution of the CLAPE project within the 3 partners

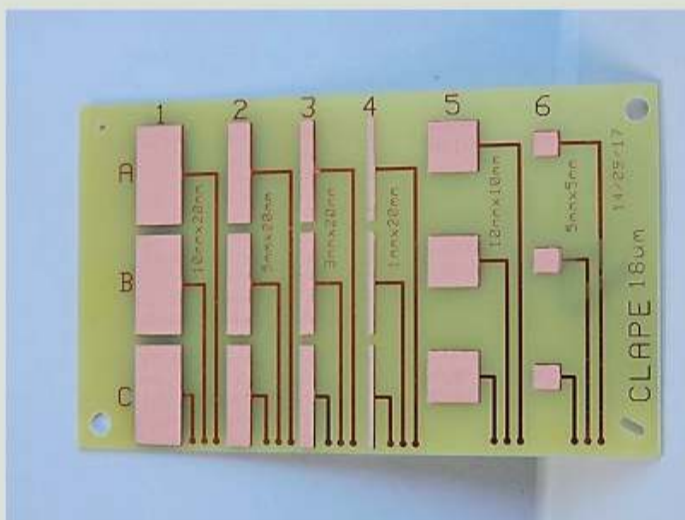

Photo of a copper cold-sprayed PCB

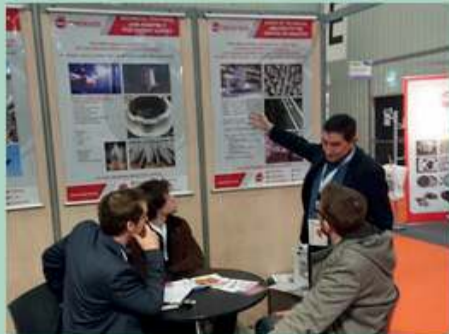

Our new website

We are pleased to introduce our brand new website. It has been thought and designed in the spirit of clarity so that you can find all the necessary information.

www.pmg-si.com

SEPEM Industries Exhibition

Our group participated in SEPEM Industries show of Rouen from January 30th to February 1st to present its activity PMG Industries. 467 exhibitors, who welcomed 4,531 visitors on their stands. A great success for this edition of Rouen.

JEC World - 6 to 8 march
Paris Nord Villepinte - Booth n° 6R72
www.jeccomposites.com

MIDEST - 27 to 30 march
Paris Nord Villepinte - Booth n° 2L50
www.midest.com

